SENIORS

*I would steel my heart and be abrupt,
And take my leave unheard,
I would laugh a bit— then fix my smile
Then I say the farewell word.*

*I would be dignified and calm,
As could be any man,
But, alas, the essence of goodbye
May yet disrupt my plan*

Do You Know Your Staff?

Do you know the people on the Margol staff who are going to put out a paper every two weeks or so? Maybe you would like to know something about them.

Our boss and editor in chief is Alyce Christian. Alyce is a senior this year and has already proved herself capable of handling the staff.

Jacqi Wood is our assistant editing. She is also on the feature writing staff. Jacqi is a senior this year, too.

Gordon Crawford is our business manager and has charge of the advertising staff. It is his job to collect the money from the staff and put it in safe keeping. Gordon is a sophomore.

The Feature editor this year is Patty Jordan who is a member of the senior class. She not only supervises all feature writers but writes some of the articles, too.

"News" Ann Stern is our news editor this year. She is a senior and her job is to find choice news articles to put in our newspaper.

June Clark is our club editor. June is a junior. She handles all the affairs of clubs about our school. In addition to this assignment she also works on the advertising staff.

Our Sports editor is John Hamilton and who could be more capable for the job than John. He is also a senior.

The Art section is in charge of David Poland. David is a senior and we all know he has much skill when it comes to drawing.

The new addition to the staff is our very own photographer—Bill Gallup. Bill is a senior and from what we know about Bill you can look for some good pictures.

Our exchange this year is to be handled by Ellen Gunn. Ellen is a sophomore. She serves on the advertising staff and writes features. In addition to all this, Ellen assists with Art work.

Joyce Anderson is another sophomore on our staff. She helps with advertising and feature.

Jean Covey, another sophomore, writes feature articles and helps with advertising.

Jack Duff, a junior, helps with sports articles and collects advertising.

Jeanne McWilliam, a senior is one of our news writers. She also writes features.

Sandra Rainey, a junior, writes news articles and feature articles. Another junior on our staff is Jackie Vinson. She also writes news.

A new writer on our staff is Delores Bennett, a senior, who will head our new column—Book Reviews.

Martha Lampe, a junior, collects club news and also helps with advertising.

Betty Polston, our only freshman, assists in the art department and writes news, too.

Paul McKelvey, sophomore, writes our sports articles.

Bill Rediger, a junior, also writes sports articles.

Juanita Jackson, senior, is to be our typist this year. Juanita will also write feature articles.

High magazine salesmen, l. to r.: Juanita Jackson ($158); Herbie Fosnaugh ($52); Jo Anne Sprague ($58); Betty Spainhour ($58); Etta Torbert ($150).

How was our yearbook financed? Many of you helped. You who are seniors know of the work that was done in selling magazine subscriptions, and many of you in other classes either helped to sell them or bought them.

The people whose pictures are shown above were the seniors who sold the highest number of subscriptions. Along with 52 other seniors, they collected over $1,200, representing 401 magazine subscriptions, from people all over the county. This money, when added to the amount taken in for yearbook subscriptions, enabled the Senior Class of '51 to produce this yearbook.
